

Dear Dr. Jones:

I have been disabled with CFS since 2003. I want to make my voice heard and ask that the CFSAC charter is renewed. I also am requesting that this illness receive more recognition - more research - than it has in the past. There are many people like me who are young and wanting to return to work and be productive again.

Sincerely,
Rita Agustynowicz