

Center for
FAITH BASED & NEIGHBORHOOD PARTNERSHIPS

OFFICE OF JUSTICE PROGRAMS

Innovation • Partnerships • Safer Neighborhoods

U.S. DOJ CFBNP Mission

Mission:

The DOJ Center for Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships (CFBNP) coordinates between the White House Office of Faith Based & Neighborhood Partnerships (WHOFBNP) and the Department of Justice's efforts to outreach and partner with faith-based and other non-profit organizations around the country. The CFBNP leads the U.S. Department of Justice's efforts to develop new partnerships and provide relevant information to faith-based and community organizations and expand their participation in U.S. DOJ initiatives.

KEY OJP PROGRAMS/INITIATIVES

- ❖ Strengthening Relationships between Young Fathers & their Children
- ❖ Prisoner Reentry - 2nd Chance Act
- ❖ Justice Assistance Grant Program
- ❖ Community Based Violence Prevention Grant Program
- ❖ Children of Incarcerated Parents Grant Program
- ❖ Youth Opportunity Corps
- ❖ VISION 21
- ❖ DOJ Children's Exposure to Violence Initiative (CEV) - Defending Childhood