Activity 2. Identifying and seeking funding

Instructions: Use the following path to begin identifying potential funding and financing opportunities. This activity should help you explore where you can begin looking for funding opportunities. In the following activity, you will develop a plan for how to reach out to the organizations and individuals you identify in this activity.