  - Private nonprofits entities must provide proof of nonprofit status
- Faith-based and community-based organizations and American Indian/Alaska Native/Native American organizations

Applicants must be able to demonstrate the capacity to carryout the requirements of the project
The Title X statute specifies that local and regional public or private nonprofit entities may apply directly to the Secretary for a Title X family planning services grant under this announcement.

Funding of applications that propose to rely on other entities to provide services, the applicant must document the process it will use for providing an opportunity to receive sub-awards to qualified entities eligible to receive federal funds in providing services throughout the service area to meet the needs of project beneficiaries.
• The Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA) provides information and guidance related to Title X applications.

• Follow the FOA carefully! The information provided in the FOA takes precedence over any conflicting information in other grant related documents.
Table I contains a listing of the competitive service areas, the approximate funds available and the application due date.

Application due dates and grant funding dates vary by service area, but are clearly indicated in Table I.

Multiple awards may be made for the service areas listed in Table I.

The approximate award amount listed includes indirect costs.
General Application Content:

- Applications must clearly describe administrative, management, and clinical capability of applicant to deliver required services.

- Proposed project must include all required clinical services—refer to Title X Guidelines http://www.hhs.gov/opa/program-guidelines/.

- Characteristics of a successful application are included in the Announcement.

Title X Services Grants
Application Review

Funding Decisions:

- Final grant award decisions are made by the Regional Health Administrator (RHA) in consultation with the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Population Affairs (DASPA) and the Assistant Secretary for Health (ASH) or their designees. In addition the following criteria will be considered:
  - Geographic distribution of services within the identified service area as described including consideration of whether the area is best served by a single or multiple grantees and the focus on providing services to areas in need of Title X (and subsidized) family planning services;
  - The extent to which funds requested maximize access for the population in need within the entire service area as announced in Table I;
  - The extent to which projects relying on sub-recipients can provide the required services and best serve individuals in need throughout the anticipated service area; and
  - The extent to which projects best promote the purposes of Section 1001 of the Public Health Service Act, within the limits of funds available for such projects.
Review of Risk Posed by the Applicant:

- HHS/OASH will evaluate each application in the fundable range for risks posed by an applicant before issuing an award in accordance with 45 CFR § 75.205. OASH will use a risk-based approach and may consider any items such as the following:
  - Applicant’s financial sustainability;
  - Quality of management systems and ability to meet the management standards prescribed in 45 CFR part 75;
  - History of performance. The applicant's record in managing Federal awards, if it is a prior recipient of Federal awards, including timeliness of compliance with applicable reporting requirements, conformance to the terms and conditions of previous Federal awards, and if applicable, the extent to which any previously awarded amounts will be expended prior to future awards;
  - Reports and findings from audits performed; and
  - The applicant’s ability to effectively implement statutory, regulatory, or other requirements imposed on Federal entities.
Application Notifications and Awards:

- The length of the Project Period awarded may be up to 3 years.
  - Non-competing applications are submitted in the interim years that include progress reports, work plans, budgets and budget justification
- Budget periods are one year only.
- Unsuccessful applicants will be notified by the Office of Population Affairs.

Summary and Tips
READ THE ENTIRE FUNDING ANNOUNCEMENT
Project Narrative Description:

- Be clear, complete and concise in the project description; follow and address exactly what is requested in the Program Announcement.

- Don’t make the reviewer search for the required information. Generally, the easier the application is to review, the better the score.

- Clearly identify the sections of the application and indicate which component is being addressed.

- The project narrative must include all required information within 65 pages. Do not use appendices to expand the page limit.
Project Narrative Description:

- Make the goals and objectives “SMART;” Specific; Measurable; Achievable; Realistic; and Time-framed.
- Activities presented in the work plan should relate directly to the proposed goals and objectives.
- The program work plan, evaluation plan and budget should provide a complete picture of how the applicant will address the service areas needs as well as address the purpose and expectations in the Program Announcement.
Staffing:

- The staffing should be appropriate and reasonable for the goals, objectives and activities of the proposed project.
- Be complete in describing what staff will do, the expertise required and the percent time they will be assigned to the project.
- Position descriptions and bio sketches for key staff can be presented in the appendices.
Budget:

- The budget should include adequate funds to carry out the proposed work plan, evaluation plan and administrative responsibilities of the project.

- The budget should be reasonable and relate directly to the goals and objectives.

- Do not request more funds than are available, as listed in the Program Announcement in Table I. This amount is inclusive of indirect costs.

- The operating budget should be complete and include Federal and non-Federal funds, projected program income from fees and third party payers and other contributing funds.
Summary and Tips

- Electronic submission IS required.

- Do not wait until the last minute to begin SAM (CCR) registration or update registration.
