

HHS BY THE NUMBERS

Global Health and Security

Combating EBOLA OUTBREAK

FIRST-EVER

FDA-approved vaccine for Ebola, administered to more than 255,000 people

75 MILLION+

travelers at 80 checkpoints have had public health screenings supported by CDC

573 CDC

deployments to DRC, neighboring countries, and WHO HQ to respond to Ebola outbreak

Together with CANADA, the EUROPEAN UNION, ROMANIA, UKRAINE, and BRAZIL, the UNITED STATES hosted an event at the World Health Assembly galvanizing support for global action on

VACCINE CONFIDENCE

SECOND

Antibiotic Resistance Threats Report published by CDC:

Overall 18%

reduction in deaths from antibiotic-resistant infections since first Antibiotic Resistance Threats Report in 2013

30%

reduction in hospital deaths

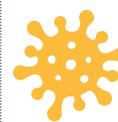

893 DAYS DEPLOYED

by USPHS Commissioned Corps on the USNS Comfort hospital ship's Latin American mission

$226M

contract to increase capacity to produce recombinant flu vaccine

350 COMMITMENTS

from governments, businesses, and NGOs to fight antimicrobial resistance (AMR) during CDC's AMR Challenge